FESTIVAL CHORUS REHEARSAL TO BE HELD MONDAY EVENING

Announcement was made at the last chorus rehearsal that further rehearsals would be on Tuesday evenings. However, after further consideration, it was deemed advisable not to change the time. The rehearsals will therefore continue to be on Monday evenings.

We wish to impress on the minds of all members of the chorus the importance of attending these rehearsals. The dates for the concerts will soon be here, and it will require steady, full rehearsals with all members present, for the chorus to be prepared.

The magnificent Rossini Stabat Mater is without doubt the most brilliant concert number the festival chorus has ever attempted. Splendid artists will be secured, and the chorus must know the music and be prepared to give a finished production. x4

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Thursday afternoon and evening of this week our third All-Church Day program will be carried out. Last Thursday we had an attendance of over 80, doubling our attendance of the week before.

Every member of the church is expected to be there, and the children should go to church directly from school to enable them to get in the work and play hour before supper. The school children enjoyed themselves last Thursday. If your children were not there, let them come this time. They will profit by it.

Remember the supper hour at 6:30 and be on hand to add to the enjoyment of the occasion. Bring the necessary dishes for the family and one article of food, together with bread and butter. One hot dish with coffee to be served at church. Following is the program for this Thursday:

2—6—Woman's Auxiliary.

4—6:15—Woman's Missionary society.

4:30—6:30—Children's work and play hour.

6:30—7:15—Supper.

7:15—7:45—Devotional period.

7:45—8:30—Study classes; World Wide Guild, Young Men's Mission Study class, adult class to study Sunday school lesson or chosen book. x3

MANY PERSONS TRY TO BORROW THEIR RELIGION

Declares Evangelist Clarke
In His Sermon Wednesday Evening

SUGGESTS STORY OF TEN VIRGINS

'Choosing Sides' Subject of Sermon Announced For This Evening

(By Rev. J. A. Long)

Undivided interest characterized every part of the services at the Church of Christ Wednesday evening. A large audience early began to assemble and had filled the auditorium when the inspiring song service began. The audience sang unusually well. By special request the evangelists repeated the duet "The Old Rugged Cross," and Miss White sang a beautiful solo. The question box is being largely used and Mr. Clarke's scholarly handling of the questions is a subject of much favorable comment.

The evangelist's subject last night was "Religious Parasites" and read for his text Matt. 25:8 and began his sermon by calling attention to the suggestions of the story of the ten virgins. First, he said, all of these virgins looked much alike, dressed alike, carried the same kind of lamps and all were invited to the wedding. There was no difference to be noted until the bridegroom came. But, said the preacher, you cannot always decide on the outward appearance. In religion you must look at the heart as in the parable of the wheat and the tares.

Second, there was no specified hour for the bridegroom's arrival. But he came when it was most difficult to make preparation so we shall find it best to be always ready. The Master said he would come in an hour when we thought not. In the third place, said the evangelist, we are reminded that those who are prepared for the future must not neglect the present. The wise virgins had oil for present use and future emergencies. Even our future years on this earth depend largely on the way we prepare for them. Abraham Lincoln and James A. Garfield didn't just happen to be fitted for the presidency of the United States when the call came. Mr. Hoover doesn't just happen to occupy his place in the world of service today. It is an old familiar lesson that cannot be too often taught that the only way to dig the death of the righteous is to live the life of righteousness. Sick bed repentance is usually a broken stick, for ninety-nine out of one hundred where the patient recovers he goes back into the world. There is only one case of last hour repentance in the New Testament and he had never had an earlier opportunity.

Then Mr. Clarke emphasized the fact that the outstanding thought of the parable was the futility of trying to borrow religion—a very common practice however, as revealed by ministerial experience. Many try to borrow from their relatives. The young man from his Christian mother, the husband from his wife, etc. The preacher declared Patrick Henry was right when he closed his will with the words, "I have now disposed of all my property to my family. There is one more thing I wish I could give them, and that is the Christian religion. If they had that and I had not given them one shilling they would be rich; and if they hadn't that and I had given them all the world they would still be poor."

Further, he said, many try to borrow from their past experiences, but in other things we don't depend on what we had in the past. A good dinner yesterday won't help us much to appease hunger today. He told his hearers that only those who are faithful unto death shall receive the crown of life. In the third place, some try to borrow from forms and ceremonies, and these are all right in their proper place. In the Lord's supper we must discern the Lord's body and in baptism we must find the answer of a good conscience toward God or they are useless. The heart must be right.

Inclusion the evangelist pointed out that some try to boost themselves by reducing the standards of God—borrow religion from a mistaken idea of the Divine. It is sometimes said God is too merciful to condemn anyone, forgetting that God must also be holy and just upholding the perfect standards of the moral universe. God does not condemn anyone, he simply passes sentence when the individual by his life has condemned himself by refusing the Divine Physician's prescription for eternal life.

Sermon subject tonight "Choosing Sides."

THE MORTGAGE

Will Be Repeated At West Side Auditorium Friday Evening, Feb. 11

Owing to the limited seating capacity of the West Side auditorium, the play, "The Mortgage," by Emma J. Cole, will be repeated Feb. 11.

Sarah Dewberry is a devoted, old-fashioned mother. Her children are so engrossed with pleasure and money making they have no room in their crowded lives for their old-fashioned mother. Mandy, the housekeeper, is a loyal friend to Aunt Sally; her daughter Jane is full of mischief. Ben forces his mother to sign away the little home so he can go to the city. Just as Aunt Sally is preparing to go to the poorhouse, Charley, the wayward son, returns and cares for his mother. Aunt Sally, though 70, is very active. She entertains the marvelous non-gossiping sewing circle. Mrs. Storms, a neighbor, is the greatest news carrier on earth.

The tickets are selling rapidly for the second performance. Mark Feb. 11 on your calendar. Do not miss this play—full of human nature from start to finish. x3

MT. ZION

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Johns and son Denzel, of Hunt Station, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Harris and daughter Nellie, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harris spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Harris.

Virgil Wolfe spent Saturday at Mt. Vernon.

Mrs. Cora Pryor and daughter Marie visited Mrs. Eveline Harris Wednesday.

Clyde Thompson and family spent Saturday at Newark.

Clark Schooler is somewhat improved.

Mrs. Mary Van Winkle is spending this week with her mother, Mrs. Kidd of Bladensburg.

Miss Gertha Hall spent last week with Mrs. Opal, Cottrell of Bladensburg.

Miss Gladys Crum is slowly improving. Her sister Frances, of Oklahoma, is spending several days with her.

James Fowls of Pine Bluff visited Mr. and Mrs. Clark Schooler Tuesday.

Mrs. Cora Pryor called on Mrs. Lora Wolfe Thursday afternoon.

BIG CONFERENCE TO OCCUR HERE

Teachers of the West Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio conferences, Seventh-Day Adventists, will unite in an institute to be held here February 13-15.

ADVISORY BOARD FOR SALVATION ARMY

The Salvation Army rally meeting last evening at the Mount Vernon Chamber of Commerce was a great success. The meeting was enlivened by the fine music of the Salvation Army musicians of the city, and the state speakers presented matter of vital importance to the local organization.

During the course of the meeting fourteen new soldiers joined the army, five recruits were enlisted, and four babies were dedicated. More than 135 people were in attendance at the meeting.

On account of the Near East drive that is now occupying the attention of the people of the city, the canvass for the Salvation Army was deferred until next spring, perhaps until the first of April.

The Advisory Board of citizens who will act during the next year, will be composed of the following men: Messrs. W. E. Grant, Hoy L. Russell, H. M. Lybarger, H. S. Workman, S. E. Johnson, J. A. Nelson, W. E. McCormick, Curtis Kinney, and W. P. Welshmer. This board will have an organization meeting in the near future.

ARREST MAN FOR JUMPING BOARD BILL

R. K. Debolt of Centerburg was arrested in Mt. Vernon by Sheriff Lytle Wednesday night on a charge of jumping a board bill, and was placed in the county jail to await a hearing before Magistrate Harter. The affidavit against Debolt was filed by Gertrude Welsh, who operates a restaurant in Mt. Vernon.

Debolt appeared before Squire Harter Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock for his preliminary hearing. He pleaded not guilty to the charge. He failed to give bond and was placed in the county jail to await his hearing on Monday afternoon, Feb. 7, at 3 o'clock.

HAVE COLOR IN CHEEKS Be Better Looking—Take Olive Tablets

To have a clear, pink skin, bright eyes, no pimples, a feeling of buoyancy like childhood days, you must keep your body free from poisonous wastes. Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets (a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil) act on the liver and bowels like calomel—yet have no dangerous after effect. Take one nightly and note results. They start the bile and overcome constipation. That's why millions of boxes are sold annually. 15c and 30c.
